

Data Protection Policy

The registration form is destined to allow you to register to the Conference on rare neurotransmitter diseases. The fields marked by an asterisk are mandatory. If the fields aren't filled, the registration is not possible. The information that you're communicating are destined to the organization team of the Conference on rare neurotransmitter diseases in particular the patient organization HRABRIŠA (LIL' BRAVE ONE) (hereinafter "HRABRIŠA" or "we"). HRABRIŠA, as data controller, processes your personal data in accordance with the provisions of the European General Data Protection Regulation (hereinafter "GDPR") as well as with the Serbian data protection legislation. This Data Protection Policy describes how we process and use your personal data.

1. What personal data do we collect?

"Personal data" means information that relates to you or that we may otherwise associate with you. The personal data we collect includes the following data: your first and last name, title, postal address, e-mail address, telephone number, gender, date of birth, field of activity, education and company.

2. How do we collect your personal data?

We collect personal data that you have voluntarily provided us with when you register for the participation at the Conference on rare neurotransmitter diseases. We do not use tracking technologies such as cookies to collect data.

3. For what purpose do we process your personal data?

We need your personal data for communication purposes, in particular to: (i) send you information about the Conference on rare neurotransmitter diseases; (ii) create a list of attendances of the Conference on rare neurotransmitter diseases, (iii) track contacts in the Covid-19 pandemic; (iv) inform you in case there was a participant at the conference infected with the SarsCoV-2 virus.

4. Who do we provide your personal data to?

For the performance of our services and for the purposes mentioned above, we may share your personal data with third parties (in particular service providers in connection with the Conference on rare neurotransmitter diseases).

When transferring personal data to other countries, we ensure that the EU GDPR as well as all other applicable laws and regulations are observed, for example by concluding agreements to ensure that the recipients of your data maintain an appropriate level of data protection.

Finally, we may disclose your personal data if we are legally obliged to do so, e.g. to health authorities due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

5. How do we use website analytics services?

To collect information about the number of visitors to the website and the number of page views.

6. Where is your personal data stored?

Your personal data is stored in Serbia and in the EU.

During the Conference on rare neurotransmitter diseases, your personal data will be accessed from Serbia, for example to check your congress registration.

7. How long do we keep your personal data?

As a rule, we keep your personal data for five years in accordance with the legal retention obligations.

8. Data integrity

We take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your personal data against loss and unauthorized access.

9. Your rights

You have the right to know what personal data we process about you. You also have the right to request that incorrect personal data about you be corrected and that your personal data be deleted. You can also forbid the processing of certain personal data and can request that data processing is restricted. The restriction of the processing or deletion of personal data is not possible if this data is necessary for the fulfilment of a legal obligation. If you do not agree to our data processing, you can report this to the competent data protection authorities in Serbia and the EU.

10. How can you contact us?
